

1- In, the materials are presented to the examinees auditorily at a normal rate of speech, and they are required to write down what they have heard.

- | | |
|----------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1) dicto-comp | 2) elicited dictation |
| 3) partial dictation | 4) dictation with competing noise |

2- A test in which the students are required to identify in a text words that do not belong and have been inserted into the text is known as

- | | |
|----------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1) C-test | 2) information transfer |
| 3) cloze elide | 4) selective deletion gap filling |

3- All of the following are true about cloze tests EXCEPT

- 1) they are efficient for diagnostic purposes
- 2) they are based on Gestalt psychology
- 3) they were first used as a measure of readability in first language
- 4) they are a reaction to discrete-point testing

4- According to Oller (1979), necessarily breaks the elements of language apart and tries to test them separately with little or no attention to the way these elements interact in a larger context.

- | | |
|--------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1) communicative testing | 2) discrete-point testing |
| 3) integrative testing | 4) pragmatic testing |

5- Which of the following statements is NOT true about multiple-choice cloze tests?

- 1) They enjoy the advantage of practicality over the open-ended cloze tests.
- 2) They involve both comprehension and production.
- 3) They produce information similar to that of open-ended forms.
- 4) They are more appropriate than the open-ended form in large-scale administrations.

6- In method, a cloze test is first administered to a group of native speakers on the assumption that the response given by such a group would be a reasonable criterion against which to judge the adequacy of responses given by non-native foreign students to the same test items.

- | | |
|--------------------|----------------|
| 1) acceptable word | 2) C-test |
| 3) exact word | 4) cloze elide |

7- Which of the following statement is NOT true about functional tests?

- 1) The communicative aspects of language can be tapped by functional test.
- 2) In functional tests, the items are independent of one another and contextualized.
- 3) Responses to test items are based on the intuition of one or a few individual test developers.
- 4) The content validity of functional tests is guaranteed because the testees know exactly what they want to measure before developing the test.

8- Which type of listening task is “listening cloze”?

- | | |
|--------------|--------------|
| 1) Intensive | 2) Extensive |
| 3) Selective | 4) Imitative |

9- All of the following are among characteristics of pre-scientific movement in language testing EXCEPT

- 1) translation and free composition tests were developed by classroom teachers
- 2) there were no language testing specialists
- 3) this movement was influenced by behavioral psychology
- 4) lack of concern with concepts like objectivity, reliability, and validity

10- A test of ability to use correctly the perfect tenses of verbs or to supply correct prepositions may be termed a(n) test.

- 1) integrative
- 2) discrete-point
- 3) pragmatic
- 4) standardized

11- As a dictation-type test, dicto-comp

- 1) is partial dictation with some deletions
- 2) is a technique between writing and reading
- 3) includes a passage presented in both oral and written forms
- 4) requires testees to write the whole passage after they listen to it

12- tests are those designed to use several skills at one time, or more precisely, to employ different channels and /or modes of the language simultaneously and in the context of extended text or discourse.

- 1) Pragmatic
- 2) Integrative
- 3) Discrete-point
- 4) Functional

13- Which of the following statements about integrative-sociolinguistic movement in language testing is FALSE?

- 1) It has its roots in the argument that language is creative.
- 2) It argued that communicative competence hinged on knowledge of language appropriate for different situations.
- 3) Language is more than the sum of the discrete parts.
- 4) Language tests became increasingly objective and precise.

14- In method of scoring a cloze test, when a word violates minor rules of contextual constraints, it should be logically given more credit than a word violating major rules of contextual constraints.

- 1) elicited imitation
- 2) exact word method
- 3) acceptable word method
- 4) weighted response method

15- What kind of listening task is this?

Test-takers hear a passage recited three times: first at normal speed; then with long pauses between phrases during which time test-takers write down what they have heard; and finally at normal speed once more so they can check their work and proofread.

- 1) Extensive
- 2) Responsive
- 3) Interactive
- 4) Perceptive

16- The integrative approach to language testing does NOT emphasize

- 1) Unitary Competence Hypothesis
- 2) the grammar of expectancy
- 3) the importance of context
- 4) how language is used in communication

17- It is NOT true that in structuralist approach to language testing

- 1) priority is given to language usage rather than language use
- 2) language is divided into skills and sub-skills
- 3) the results can be best used for diagnostic purposes
- 4) language competence is regarded as unitary

18- In, because of an interaction between linguists and specialists in psychological and educational measurement, language tests became increasingly scientific and reliable.

- 1) integrative testing
- 2) pragmatic testing
- 3) discrete-point testing
- 4) communicative testing

19- Which of the following statements about Cloze Tests is FALSE?

- 1) They are based on what is known as theory of whole.
- 2) They are integrative and pragmatic.
- 3) They are a reaction against subjective evaluation.
- 4) They fail to measure short-term gains of the learners.

20- Which type of dictation is more appropriate with more proficient learners?

- 1) dicto-comp
- 2) standard dictation
- 3) dictation with competing noise
- 4) partial dictation

ANSWER KEY

1- Choice 1

4- Choice 2

7- Choice 3

10- Choice 2

13- Choice 4

16- Choice 4

19- Choice 3

2- Choice 3

5- Choice 2

8- Choice 3

11- Choice 4

14- Choice 4

17- Choice 4

20- Choice 1

3- Choice 1

6- Choice 4

9- Choice 4

12- Choice 2

15- Choice 1

18- Choice 3